National Collegiate Boxing Association Finals

For over 60 years college students have been putting down their books long enough to put up their dukes —and now the best of the current crop will slug away in a dozen weight classes. Although they're more interested in the science than the profession of boxing, our guest commentator is definitely a pro, Sugar Ray Leonard, WBC welterweight champ! May 1,3

HBO Sports Presents: Wild West Roundup

Rodeo just might be America's most original sport. After all, Buffalo Bill Cody staged the first one 100 years ago. This HBO rodeo spectacular has it all: saddle bronc, bareback and bull riding, steer wrestling, calf roping and girls' barrel racing on horseback. But there's more! Singer Carlene Carter will also be there with some swinging country western music and dancing. It makes for a super blend and an all-around salute to the American West. May 7,10,15,19

Time Was... The Seventies

The final segment of HBO's exclusive series looking at the past decades. This one finds a nation disillusioned, divided and in shock. Watergate and war. Disco and digitals. Dick Cavett hosts. May 3,8,11

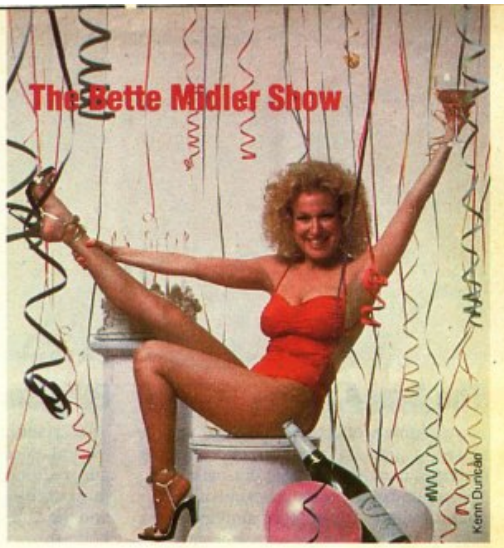
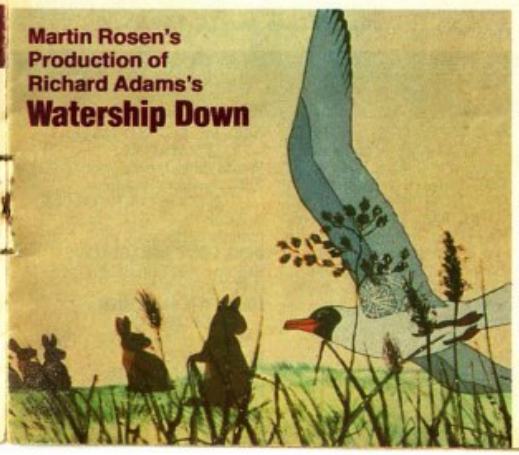
The Bette Midler Show



Here she comes. "Trash with Flash," "Sleaze with Ease," the "Divine Miss M." You name it, here's the wildly energetic Bette in a tour de force special, one of the first superstar performances on HBO. The Oscar-nominated (The Rose) dynamo pulls out all the stops in this one-woman concert. An evening of explosive comedy, drama, music, madness. An evening very definitely not to be missed! "Bette takes the stage with the velocity of a tornado; hilariously shocking." (Hollywood Reporter) May 10,15,20,23,28

Martin Rosen's Production of Richard Adams's

Watership Down



This classic bestseller comes to the screen creating a fantastic fantasy world. These brilliantly animated characters search for a home far from bulldozers and vicious animal foes. Voices of Sir Ralph Richardson, John Hurt and Zero Mostel (as a daffy seagull). Art Garfunkel sings the theme in this delightful tale for all ages. "Very exciting . . . entirely enchanting" (L. A. Times) Some violence. (PG-1:32) May 9,13,18,22,24,28

The Brood

In a nightmare encounter with fear and destruction, a young father discovers bizarre activities in a mental clinic. Ex-patients are terrified at the mere mention of the doctor's name. Oliver Reed and Samantha Eggar star. "Well-made, expertly acted horror film" (L. A. Times) Profanity, brutality. (R-1:28) May 12,17,20,25

Billy Smart's Circus

Take a center ring seat for Britain's largest and oldest family circus. A three decade tradition, the Smart family presents the most exciting Big-Top artists from Europe and the U.S. Acrobats, high wire artists, knife-throwers, trampoline stars, and clowns run rings around any other family circus in town. May 14,17,22,25,30

C.H.O.M.P.S.

Bright, fun-filled comedy adventures of the world's first computerized watchdog. To save his firm, a young electronics genius invents a robot super-dog. The hilarity starts with the souped-up pup confronting inept thieves. Conrad Bain, Wesley Eure, Red Buttons, Valerie Bertinelli star. Adult language. (PG-1:29) May 15,18,21,26,30

Women's Gymnastics

Caesars Palace Invitational Part 1. An HBO Sports exclusive! This star-studded meet boasts the top U.S. women in a battle for all-around honors—like Marcia Frederick, the first U.S. woman to earn a gold medal at the world championships. Academy Award Best Picture The Deer Hunter

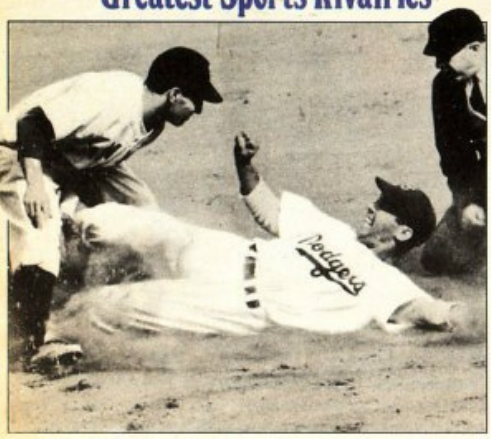
Stunning, unforgettable film of tremendous impact. Robert De Niro, Christopher Walken and John Savage are brilliant as three young men living the daily rituals of their Pennsylvania town until they go off to Vietnam and personal trauma. Winner of five Oscars, including Best Picture, Director and Supporting Actor (Walken). "Extraordinary" (New West) Strong language, graphic violence, war horror. (R-3:03) May 18,23,26,29

Fiddler on the Roof

This expanded film version of one of Broadway's most popular musicals is a perfect delight. Tevye, the milkman, trying to marry off his three daughters amidst social upheaval in old Russia, is truly an unforgettable character. Many of the musical's delightful numbers are already classics. "Visually magnificent" (Saturday Review) Family fare. (G-2:59) May 17,20,23,25

Greatest Sports Rivalries



Yankees vs. Dodgers

Every time they met it was fireworks—and they met in 10 World Series. Remember Cookie Lavagetto's pinch hit in '47? Johnny Podres' shutout in '55? Sandy Koufax's pitching in '63? Great moments for Dodger fans. But Yankee rooters prefer Billy Martin's game-saving catch in '52, Don Larsen's perfect game in '56 and Reggie Jackson's homers in '77. See it all plus recent interviews with stars of this memorable rivalry. May 22,26,31

John Houseman

In the year 2018, there's no crime, poverty, war or pollution. But there is rollerball, a deadly sport broadcast weekly to the world's bored citizens. James Caan is its star, but those who rule the planet want him out of the game as he stubbornly fights for personal freedom. "Impact is devastating" (N. Y. Daily News) Adult situations and language, violence. (R-2:00) May 27

Elliott Gould The Silent Partner Susannah York

A gripping, ingenious thriller of money and murder—and how to get away with both. Elliott Gould stars as a teller whose most successful relationships are with his tropical fish, until bank robber Christopher Plummer gives him the opportunity to rip off his own bank. Susannah York co-stars in this exciting game of cat and mouse. "Brisk and suspenseful" (N. Y. Times) Strong language, brief nudity, violence. (R-1:45) May 30

What's New on HBO...

May brings plenty of viewing pleasure. Take a look at these HBO specials: The Medicine Show, another informative, enlightening presentation from Consumer Reports magazine. Red Skelton's first special of his very own in nearly a decade. Guilty or Not Guilty: The State vs. Dr. Coppolino, the trial that seized America's imagination.

As for movies, Robert De Niro stars in The Deer Hunter, winner of five Oscars, an engrossing tale of three men and the trauma of Vietnam. Richard Gere is one of three other Yanks with English loves during an earlier war era, WW II. You won't want to miss Roger Moore, kicking off our James Bond series with two of 007's most daring adventures. And sports: Diamond fans are sure to enjoy Greatest Sports Rivalries, this edition recapping Yankees vs. Dodgers action and nostalgia.

Plus "the Divine Miss M."—back on the Bette Midler Show. Truly, a "merry month of May!"
